

NHC

2016

Newsletter #3, March

New Prize

In the footsteps of the Kameika and Livingston Cups, the NHC will be offering a new prize in 2016. It is an antique leaded crystal vase (which will be mounted on a wooden base), donated by a longstanding NHC participant. The name of the trophy has not yet been approved by the Championship Committee. It will be the traveling trophy for the Women's Division winner. It could also hold your hole-in-one ball.

Colors Flying

Last year the inimitable John Crow Miller, Esq. brought the state flag of his native Texas to the NHC to fly in his honor. He also made the suggestion that each player bring a flag from their state of domicile. The Czar has taken care of that by obtaining the flags of all 50 states – Canada, too for you Canucks – and they appropriate flags will be flying tee off time. That will be a great spot for photo opportunities.

Rookie Entries

The first 2016 entry from a rookie NHC player has reached mail box 981. Tim Robinson has wanted to enter for a number of years and finally made the plunge. Tim comes from Bowling Green, KY.

More Returning Players

- From the snow-bound lands up north Bobby Sly, defending NHC champion will be heading south to play once more pursuing his fourth title.
- Keeping Bobby on the high road will be his father-in-law, Bob West, who also acts as personal physician and golf advisor to the Czar.
- Part of the vaunted Wisconsin team, Greg Smith, official Cheese and Wurstmeister of the NHC is in. Greg, please bring the attractive and charming Ann with you.
- All the way from Florida, Mike Stevens returns. A three-time NHC champion, he will also be playing for a fourth championship medal.

Backside